Arlington Baptist HOME Tutorial (ABHT) is a Christian tutorial service that has been developed as a support ministry of the Arlington Baptist Church for those parents who have elected to instruct their children at home. It supports the home school family by offering twice a week courses for home schooled children at various grade levels. Parents are responsible for overseeing their children's progress in all subjects and are also responsible for meeting the state and county requirements.

ABHT is a five-day program as there will be work to complete on home days. According to state laws regarding tutorial services, the parent must commit to being involved with the child's home schooling. The tutor will establish the syllabus and assignments; but the parent is still the primary teacher. For example, if the student is enrolled in ABS classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays, the parent is the primary teacher on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at home. Students MUST complete their assignments in order to keep up with the class and gain a thorough knowledge of the subjects being taught. The parent will be responsible for supplying the required books and supplies needed for class, as requested by the tutor. A book list will be available. Parents may be able to purchase the required books from the school. (Limited Availability)
